

To Whom It May Concern:

As of the time of this letter (14:30 CST, 13 April 2008) it has been 390 days, 2 hours, and 30 minutes that the nation has been looking to the FCC for a decision on the proposed Sirius and XM merger. The United States Department of Justice has made its decision as of March 24th, which will be 3 weeks tomorrow. The time has come for the FCC to finalize its decision.

Therefore, with this letter, I move that a summary decision be agreed to and submitted for the record by April 18th, 2008.

Formally submitted,
